

Homophones

Circle the correct homophone to complete these sentences.

1. Due to a huge spillage in the supermarket isle/aisle, we had to wait to get the milk.
2. We are not allowed/aloud to talk during assembly.
3. As Jamie was tacking up the horse, she realised that the bridle/bridal was missing.
4. "Please welcome our most esteemed guest/guessed," announced the headteacher as the famous sportswoman entered the assembly hall.
5. I wish I could eat my favourite serial/cereal every morning but my mum says it is too sweet.
6. After learning about rattlesnakes and scorpions, I am in no hurry to visit a desert/dessert.
7. As the heard/herd of wildebeest grazed, a solitary lioness crept up on the weakest member.
8. I decided to make my father/farther breakfast-in-bed for his birthday.

Homophones Answers

1. Due to a huge spillage in the supermarket isle/aisle, we had to wait to get the milk.
2. We are not allowed/aloud to talk during assembly.
3. As Jamie was tacking up the horse, she realised that the bridle/bridal was missing.
4. "Please welcome our most esteemed guest/guessed," announced the headteacher as the famous sportswoman entered the assembly hall.
5. I wish I could eat my favourite serial/cereal every morning but my mum says it is too sweet.
6. After learning about rattlesnakes and scorpions, I am in no hurry to visit a desert/dessert.
7. As the heard/herd of wildebeest grazed, a solitary lioness crept up on the weakest member.
8. I decided to make my father/farther breakfast-in-bed for his birthday.

Homophones

Choose the correct homophone from the word bank below to complete these sentences.

1. Due to a huge spillage in the supermarket _____, we had to wait to get the milk.
2. We are not _____ to talk during assembly.
3. As Jamie was tacking up the horse, she realised that the _____ was missing.
4. "Please welcome our most esteemed _____," announced the headteacher as the famous sportswoman entered the assembly hall.
5. I wish I could eat my favourite _____ every morning but my mum says it is too sweet.
6. After learning about rattlesnakes and scorpions, I am in no hurry to visit a _____.
7. As the _____ of wildebeest grazed, a solitary lioness crept up on the weakest member.
8. I decided to make my _____ breakfast-in-bed for his birthday.

Word Bank

bridle/bridal

desert/dessert

allowed/aloud

father/farther

heard/herd

isle/aisle

guest/guessed

serial/cereal

Homophones Answers

1. Due to a huge spillage in the supermarket aisle, we had to wait to get the milk.
2. We are not allowed to talk during assembly.
3. As Jamie was tacking up the horse, she realised that the bridle was missing.
4. "Please welcome our most esteemed guest," announced the headteacher as the famous sportswoman entered the assembly hall.
5. I wish I could eat my favourite cereal every morning but my mum says it is too sweet.
6. After learning about rattlesnakes and scorpions, I am in no hurry to visit a desert.
7. As the herd of wildebeest grazed, a solitary lioness crept up on the weakest member.
8. I decided to make my father breakfast-in-bed for his birthday.

Homophones

Choose the correct homophone from the word bank below to complete these sentences.

1. Due to a huge spillage in the supermarket _____, we had to wait to get the milk.
2. We are not _____ to talk during assembly.
3. As Jamie was tacking up the horse, she realised that the _____ was missing.
4. "Please welcome our most esteemed _____," announced the headteacher as the famous sportswoman entered the assembly hall.
5. I wish I could eat my favourite _____ every morning but my mum says it is too sweet.
6. After learning about rattlesnakes and scorpions, I am in no hurry to visit a _____.
7. As the _____ of wildebeest grazed, a solitary lioness crept up on the weakest member.
8. I decided to make my _____ breakfast-in-bed for his birthday.
9. All of the vehicles on the motorway were _____ due to a lengthy traffic jam.
10. The passengers were all relieved when the plane began its _____ into Paris after a particularly bumpy journey.

Word Bank

stationary/stationery

bridle/bridal

desert/dessert

isle/aisle

allowed/aloud

father/farther

heard/herd

guest/guessed

serial/cereal

descent/dissent

Homophones Answers

1. Due to a huge spillage in the supermarket aisle, we had to wait to get the milk.
2. We are not allowed to talk during assembly.
3. As Jamie was tacking up the horse, she realised that the bridle was missing.
4. "Please welcome our most esteemed guest," announced the headteacher as the famous sportswoman entered the assembly hall.
5. I wish I could eat my favourite cereal every morning but my mum says it is too sweet.
6. After learning about rattlesnakes and scorpions, I am in no hurry to visit a desert.
7. As the herd of wildebeest grazed, a solitary lioness crept up on the weakest member.
8. I decided to make my father breakfast-in-bed for his birthday.
9. All of the vehicles on the motorway were stationary due to a lengthy traffic jam.
10. The passengers were all relieved when the plane began its descent into Paris after a particularly bumpy journey.